

Seminar for researchers, teachers and other staff

The researcher and open science - possibilities and challenges

Time: 22.9 at 13.15-16.30

Venue: aud. Helikon, Arken A, Fabriksgatan 2

Organizers: Research Services at ÅAU and Åbo Akademi University Library

Programme

13.15-13.30 Open Science at Åbo Akademi University

Niklas Sandler, Vice-rector for Research Affairs

13.30-14.00 The Open Science and Research Initiative:

A Finnish Roadmap Towards Better Science

Jessica Parland-von Essen, Information and Applications Specialist, CSC – IT center for science

14.00-14.45 “Open Access – Unlock the Potential of your Research!” and

“Hanken in Helsinki furthers OA among Researchers”

Mikael Laakso, Researcher, Hanken School of Economics

14.45-15.00 Coffee

15.00-15.20 Prestige at Risk?

Yrsa Neuman, Researcher, Åbo Akademi University

15.20-16.05 Opening Up: Services and Support for Research

Jessica Parland-von Essen

16.05-16.30 Discussion and final words

Please register for the seminar by 15 September by sending an e-mail to eva.hoglund@abo.fi

WELCOME!