

31 MAY - 2 JUNE 2017 UNIVERSITY OF STAVANGER

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

All locations are in Kjell Arholms Hus, unless indicated otherwise.

Wednesday 31 May

1330-1600	Registration, Atrium (later registrations at the Conference Office, Room U-135)
1400-1530	Pre-conference workshop: presentation of A Corpus of Middle English Local Documents (MELD), Room U-139. Stenroos, Thengs, Khanukaeva, Bergstrøm, Schipor
1530-1600	Coffee, Atrium
1600-1620	Opening of the Conference, Auditorium 2
1620-1720	Keynote lecture, Auditorium 2 Dance , The trouble with Vikings: "Difficult" Old Norse borrowings in Middle English Chair: Smith
1730-1900	Room U-139	Room U-137
	Oudesluijs and Auer , Geographical variation in late medieval administrative documents: evidence from York and Coventry Mäkinen , N-gram inventories in the study of Middle English variation Wright , Administrative documents as a source of evidence for Medieval London house names and why they are of sociolinguistic interest Chair: Thengs	Ashe , Soul and community in Middle English writings of religious instruction, c. 1200-1350 Volkonskaya , Number symbolism in the Ormulum Salisbury , The uses of Middle English literature Chair: Gillespie

1900-2030 Reception sponsored by the University and the MELD team

Thursday 1 June

0900-1000	Keynote lecture, Auditorium 2 Mazzon , Narration and argumentation in Middle English romances Chair: Mäkinen
	Room U-139	Room U-137	Room U-136
1000-1100		Wojtyś , The preterite-present verb everyone has forgotten: the uses of *-nugan and reasons for its loss from English Newman , The obsolescence and loss of the Old and Middle English negative indefinite næniȝ Chair: Traxel	Kirner-Ludwig , Have we been misreading Harley 2253's Man in the Moon? Revisiting medieval and Early Modern English references to the Man in the Moon from a historio-linguistic viewpoint de la Cruz Cabanillas and Diego-Rodríguez , The circulation and transmission of hippocratic lunaries in Middle English Chair: Peikola

1100-1130	Coffee break, Atrium
	Room U-139	Room U-137	Room U-136
1130-1300	Kopaczyk, Molineaux, Alcorn, Maguire, Karaikos and Los, Reconstructing spelling systems through grapho-phonological parsing: The case of 15th-century Scots Stenbrenden, The Middle English reflexes of OE cg Conde-Silvestre, Communities of practice and the rise of standard English: Evidence from late fifteenth-century private correspondence Chair: Smith	Bacskai-Atkari, Syntactic features and clause typing in Middle English polar questions Bartnik, Case assignment and the evolution of left-dislocated structures Cichosz, Quotative inversion with subject pronouns: from Old to Middle English Chair: Molencki	Lundblad, "Hit is tyme rest myn hert, y me suppos": Rhetoric, dreams, and maturity in Fortunes Stabilnes Langum, Mad pilgrims: migration and mental illness in premodern literature and culture Chair: Warner
1300-1400	Lunch
1400-1530	Honkapohja, Abbreviations after the Conquest: a corpus investigation of manuscript abbreviations in LAEME. Rogos-Hebda, Abbreviations as pragmatic markers: scribal practices in BL Harley MS 1706 of Richard Rolle's Form of Perfect Living and De Emendatione Vitae Thaisen, Quantitative analysis of Middle English palaeographical data Chair: Thengs	de Bastiani, The impact of the grammaticalization of the definite determiner on the Middle English Syntax Łęcki and Nykiel, The cycle of prepositional purpose subordinators in Middle English Ogura, Indirect Object with or without to in the Earlier and Later Versions of the Wycliffite Bible Chair: Mazzon	Bator and Sylwanowicz, Middle English culinary and medical recipes - a study of the text type features Vezzosi, Some observations on Middle English charms as a special discourse type Nakayasu, How did Paston men and women regulate space and time? The spatio-temporal systems in Paston letters Chair: Mäkinen
1530-1600	Coffee break, Atrium
1600-1700	Keynote lecture, Auditorium 2 Gillespie, "Unboked is the male": Chaucer and the Makeshift Manuscript Chair: Thaisen

1830: City walk (see Social Programme)

2000: Reception sponsored by the City of Stavanger, Stavanger Archaeological Museum, Peder Klows gate 30 A

Friday 2 June

0900-1030	Room U-139	Room U-137
	Schipor, Multilingual events in Middle English texts from the Hampshire Record Office Marcus, Loans or code switches? The status of lone other-language lexical items in later medieval texts Molenccki, The divergent semantic development of people in Anglo-Norman and Middle English Chair: Wright	Hanssen, Discordia Concors in Chaucer's The Parlement of Foules Stadnik, Cognitive-cultural underpinnings of the LIFE IS A JOURNEY metaphor in Chaucer's Parson's Tale Schwan, Geoffrey Chaucer and translation – taking "The Clerk's Tale" as example Chair: Salisbury
1030-1100	Coffee break, Atrium
	Auditorium 2	Room U-139
1100-1230	Kalaga, A morphosemantic study of zero-derivation in Middle English Sauer, Lydgate's use of binomials in his Troy Book Johannesson, Reflections on Ormmulum lexis Chair: Dance	Scase, The LALME typology of scribal practice: some issues for Manuscript Studies Warner, New light on the Hm 114 scribe (and Thomas Usk) Chair: Thaisen
1230-1400	Lunch
1400-1530	Yoshikawa, Text politeness in Middle English religious prose: a focus on works that might have been regarded as heretic Seiler, Ælfric's Glossary in the Middle English Period Traxel, Middle English in the modern world Chair: Kopaczyk	Carrillo-Linares and Williamson, The linguistic character of manuscripts attributed to the so-called 'Beryn Scribe': a comparative study Garrido-Anes, Acceptance, rejection and omission of the word 'dole' in Middle English: An approach to assessing its dialectal distribution Chair: Honkapohja
1530-1600	Coffee break, Atrium
1600-1700	Keynote lecture, Auditorium 2 Peikola, Paratextual elements in Middle English manuscripts: challenges and opportunities for research Chair: Stenroos
1700-1730	Business meeting, Auditorium 2 Closing of the conference

2000: Conference dinner, Bølgen & Moi Restaurant at Stavanger Oil Museum, Kjerringholmen 1.

ICOME10 gratefully acknowledges the support of:

